

Examples of Other State Workforce Investment Board Mission Statements

Dave Crum's example of Montana's SWIB Mission statement:

"Advise the Governor on statewide workforce development to train Montana's unemployed and underemployed workers." Dave Crum

Western Illinois Mission: The Workforce Investment Board of Western Illinois is the primary advocate for the identification, communication, and resolution of current and emerging workforce development matters in Western Illinois.

Idaho Mission: The Workforce Development Council, understanding the unique needs of business, workers and students, will make policy recommendations to the Governor and the Board of Education and will facilitate coordination of an integrated Idaho workforce development system.

Mississippi Mission: Mississippi's State Workforce Investment Board (SWIB) has articulated a clear and focused mission statement: develop and implement a strategy to maximize the state's education, training, and employment service resources in support of economic development.

Pennsylvania's Mission: The board's mission is to ensure that Pennsylvania's entire workforce system, covering many programs in multiple departments and agencies, meets employers' needs for skilled workers and workers' needs for career and economic advancement. Additionally, the board is responsible for providing policy guidance and direction, evaluating performance and recommending continuous improvements.

Louisiana Mission: To provide leadership, planning, policy development, oversight, and evaluation of the local workforce investment system; to lead a comprehensive workforce system that creates greater economic opportunity by encompassing education, economic and workforce development, and to identify available jobs and link the partners necessary to place individuals in those available jobs.

New York Mission: The mission of the New York State Department of Labor is to protect workers, assist the unemployed and connect job seekers to jobs.

Wyoming Mission: Shape strategies and policies to develop, recruit and retain Wyoming's workforce

Utah Mission:

DWS MISSION:

The Department of Workforce Services strengthens Utah's economy by supporting the economic stability and quality of our workforce.

Arkansas Mission

The Arkansas Workforce Investment Board will strive to ensure an innovative and demand driven workforce investment system, in collaboration with education, business, industry, labor and state agencies, that effectively leverages employment and training resources and collectively responds to the needs of local and regional economies.
